

St. John's Church is a beautiful building in a lovely setting and represents a great responsibility for those of us who worship here and care about the building.

*Please note that parish boundaries can run down the centre of roads and along fences.

The parish is the area on the map within the red border and highlighted in pink

For a more detailed map please click here.

St. John's Parish
Boundaries